- Phonics / Reading –Little Wandle Letters and Sounds, we started our phonic sessions this week introducing the children to 4 letter sounds a week and using these to segment and blend words. We will send home picture books this half term. When they are confident with recognising letters and being able to segment and blend they will get a book with words.

Phonic Workshop – Tuesday 17th Sep 9am-10am

- Home readers- Little Wandle books will go home on a Friday and to be returned on a Thursday. Please make a comment on 'Class Dojo-portfolio' so we know how they are managing with the book. They will also get a free reader, colour band book of their own choosing for them to read. Please encourage them to read as often as possible for 5/10mins at any one time. They will also get a library book once a week this is for the adults to read to the child.
